

Speaking Practice Test 1

PART 1 City or Country

| |
|--|
| Do you prefer to live in the city or in the countryside? |
| What do you think are the main advantages of each? |
| What would say are the main problems of living in a city these days? |
| And what would you say are the main problems of living in the country? |

PART 2

| |
|--|
| Describe an environmental problem which exists in your country at the moment. You should say: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• what the main problem seems to be• for how long, approximately, it has been a problem• who it affects mainly and also say what is being done or what could be done to alleviate the problem. |
|--|

PART 3

Discussion Topics: Government Responsibility

| |
|---|
| Do you think the governments of the world are doing enough to preserve our environment? |
| What kind of information do the government in your country provide about these issues? |
| Do you think the general public could do more to help the government with the task? |
| What would you like to see happen with large industries and their role? |